

ASIAN AMERICAN STUDIES PROGRAM

University of Wisconsin-Madison

ABOUT CERTIFICATE FACULTY COURSES NEWS EVENTS

Video Library

Resources | Video Library | Book Library

All videos are available for viewing by students and faculty. Students must screen videos at 303 Ingraham, the AASP office. Faculty may reserve videos by calling (608) 263-2976 or emailing koriedo@wisc.edu and are responsible for their check-out and return.

Art to Art: Expressions of Asian American Women

Producer: Valerie Soe; 30 minutes, 1993, Documentary

A collaborative project between filmmakers, painters, and sculptors, this is the first video production focusing exclusively on contemporary Asian American women artists. Appropriate for all disciplines concerned with issues of identity and aesthetics. Features are visual artists Pacita Abad, Hung Liu, Yong Soon Min, and Barbara Takanaga, profiled by film and video artists Christine Chang, Christine Choy, Karen Kaul, and Chuleenan Svetvilas.