

THE PAINTINGS OF Pacita Abad

A celebrated international artist, Pacita Abad (1946—2004) travelled the world extensively during her painting career which lasted more than thirty years. Her paintings are a reflection of her life — colourful, joyful and bursting with passion. A former patient of the National University Cancer Institute, Singapore (NCIS), Pacita donated some of her work to us. As a tribute to her life's work, we present to you six of her paintings in this unique box set.

Circles on 42nd St.
from the collection
'Circles Collages'

Spider Web
from the collection
'Oriental Abstraction'

Orange Coral
from the collection
'Circles Collages'

It's Time to Pop the Champagne
from the collection
'Abstract Emotions'

I Hope Everyday is Like Today
from the collection
'Endless Blues'

Through the Looking Glass
from the collection
'Abstract Emotions'

Cover art: Spider Web by Pacita Abad. A celebrated international artist, Pacita Abad (1946—2004) travelled the world extensively during her painting career which lasted more than thirty years. Her paintings are a reflection of her life — colourful, joyful and bursting with passion.

Yong Loo Lin School of Medicine