An exhibition of art pieces by the students of Tanglin Trust School was displayed at the National Library in Victoria Street from 14th June - 17th June. This exhibition of mixed-media art celebrates the inspiration that Pacita Abad.

The event entitled “Celebrating in Circles” showcased a mixed-media collection of student works inspired by the late Philippine artist Pacita Abad, who played a major role in the School’s “Artist in Residence” programme from 1994 to her passing in 2004. It also featured works from guest artists Diana Francis and Julia Roberts. A big thank you to Mrs Dunstan and the art team, teachers, support staff and children for bringing this wonderful exhibition together.
