During the Mosaic Music Festival,
revel in our visual arts presentations
throughout Esplanade. Spontaneous, formalistic and exploratory - much like jazz music - these diverse works reflect and fuel the vitality of Mosaic.

THE SHAPE THAT IS

8 Mar - 16 Apr (Wed - Sun)

by Bose Krishnamachari, Pacita Abad, Milica Bravacic
India, Philippines and Singapore

The Shape That Is takes the less-travelled road in an investigation into art as form over content. Three well-known artists showcase the results of their classical and formalist explorations into the elementary process of art making. Breaking away from social and political commentaries, they embark on a search of a universal language in the more technical aspects of crafting in their respective media. With a growing respect and awe for the exploratory nuances and possibilities of medium in each of their chosen fields, the virtuosity of craft, as well as the fun of experimentation, is apparent in their works.

THIS THAT AND THE OTHER

4 Mar - 23 Apr (Sat - Sun)

by Bose Krishnamachari
India

Bose Krishnamachari's work presents the viewer with a trigger point of images/icons that can function (along with the formal construction of painting/installation) as symbolic devices with which to speak of an entire culture, its shifting mindsets and its eclectic borrowings. Innuent with colours gleaned from the "colour codes of Indian ceremonies and ritual performances, the costumes, the gestures of enactment", his work subconsciously recalls facets of an evolving culture in current times.

PACITA - THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS

4 Mar - 23 Apr (Sat - Sun)

by Pacita Abad Philippines

A popular artist whose body of works has endeared itself to the Singapore public with their vibrant colours and vivacious patternesque forms. Pacita Abad passed away last year. However, we are fortunate to be able to enjoy her legacy of paintings with their intense amounts of energy in the high-valued complementary hues. The works can only be described as explosions of colours and bursts of vigour and life that leave you feeling literally "full" and satiated. Pacita Abad (1946 - 2004), from Batanes, Philippines, was inspired by her travels to more than 80 countries.
